

Sample Service

Administrative data (Q1 2018 - Q4 2018)

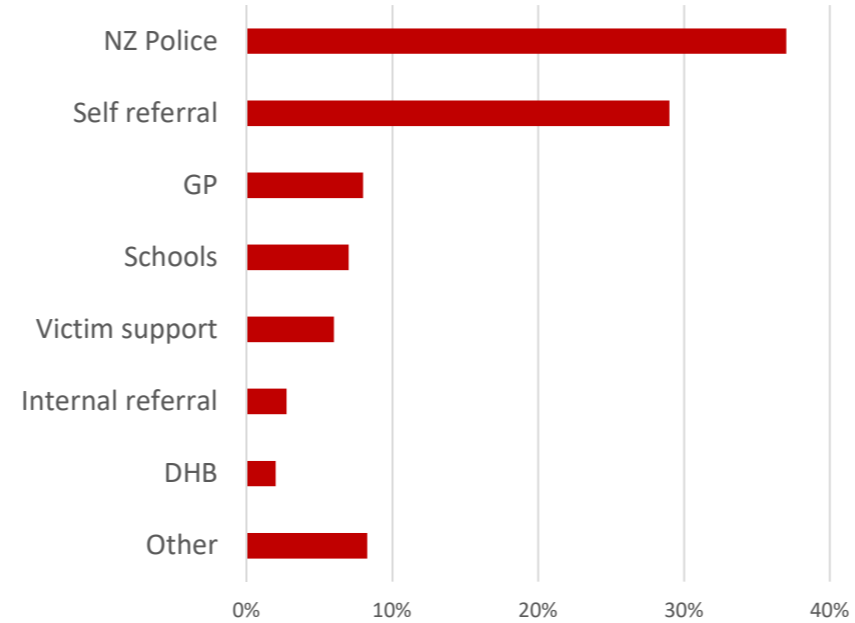

1. Client characteristics and referrals

Demographics of clients accessing specialist sexual harm services from Sample Service during the reporting period compared with 2013 census data for the Census Sample ward.

1.1 Client/whānau ethnicity

1.2 Client/whānau referral source

1.3 Client/whānau gender

1.4 Client/whānau age group

1.5 Referral numbers by month

1.6 Client/whānau volume

85

clients were supported by Sample Service from July 2017 to June 2018.

+86

clients were referred each month on average.

Sample Service

Administrative data (Q1 2018 - Q4 2018)

2 Client engagement length and interactions

Length of engagement with Sample Service across client demographics and number of interactions for clients across client demographics. Interactions include crisis support intervention (face to face or via phone), organisation or administrative interactions such as appointment scheduling and check ins, and interagency interaction with agencies including forensic medical examiners, Police, and Victim Support.

2.1 Length of engagement in weeks for all clients/whānau

2.2 Average engagement length in weeks by age group

2.3 Average number of interactions by age group

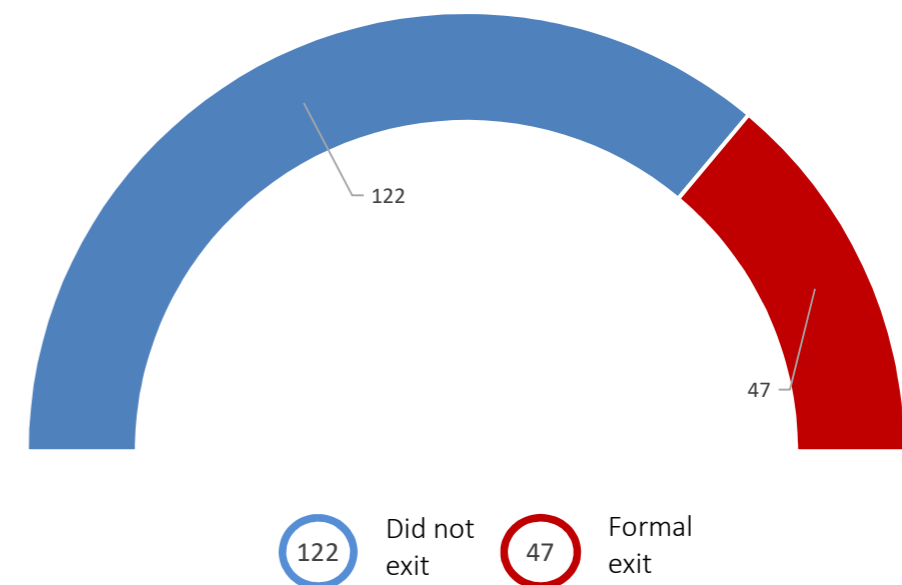

2.4 Average engagement length in weeks by ethnicity

2.5 Average number of interactions by ethnicity

2.6 Percent of clients/whānau formally exiting service

Sample Service

Administrative data (Q1 2018 - Q4 2018)

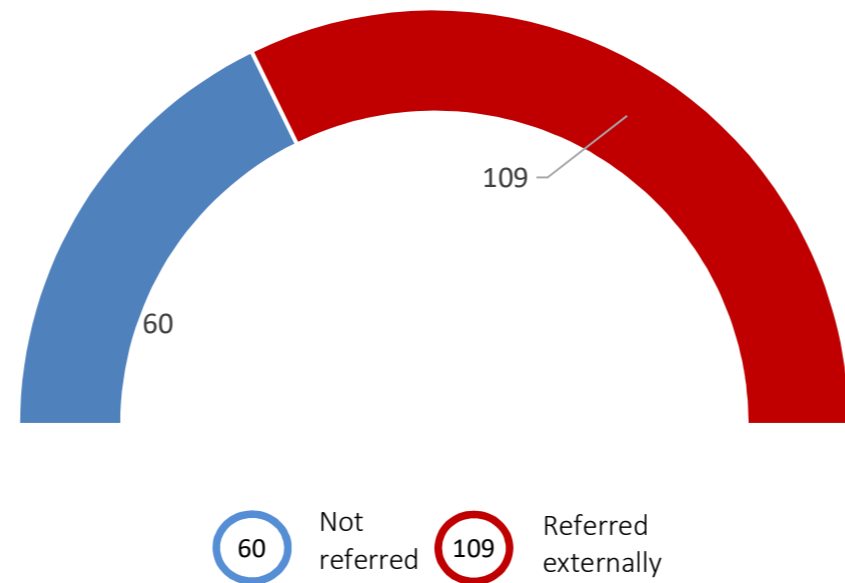

3. Detailed client interactions

Details of client interaction types, engagement with crisis support sessions, and external referrals to other agencies by Sample Service

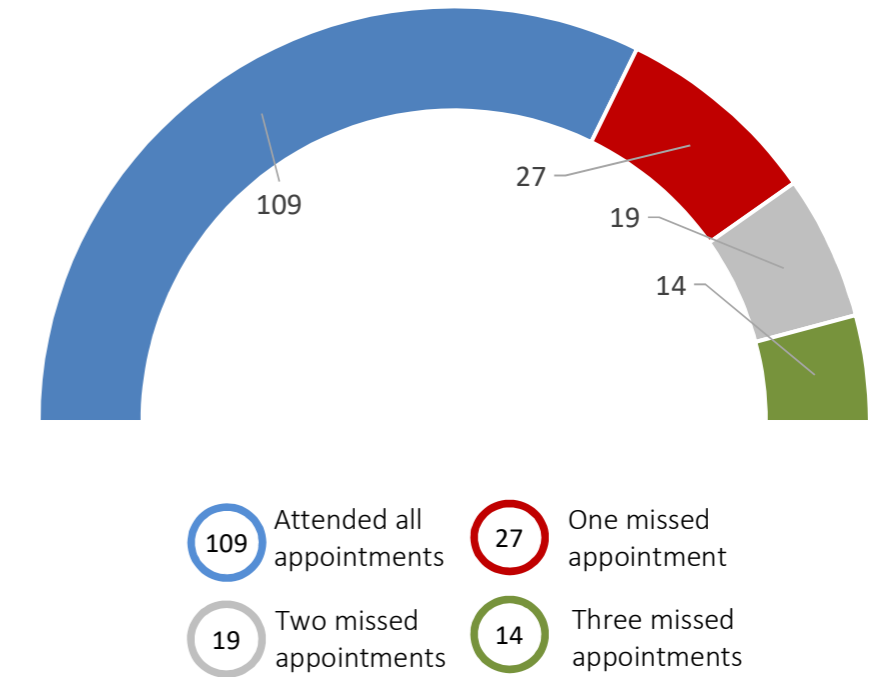

3.1 Average number of crisis support sessions by ethnicity

3.2 Number of clients/whānau referred to external agencies

3.3 Client/whānau attendance of scheduled appointments

3.4 Average number of crisis support sessions by age group

3.5 Number of each session type across all clients/whānau

